MARINE ITEMS.

The San Francisco steamer Elder left out yesterday. She brought a consignment of cheese from Portland for Astoria. The following passengers booked from here: C. Sidwell, H. Kuch, C. A. Carson, Gust Rasmussen, M. Peterson, Albert Anderson, Thomas Peterson, S. Hansen, Mrs. Hansen, and Ethel Hansen.

The arrival of the Swedish bark Trople at Melbourne, from San Francisco, made big money for the speculators that played her to reach her destination. It was reported the day before her arrival that a boat marked with her name had been picked up on the Australian coast, and this frightened the underwriters, who paid 75 per cent to protect themselves. The next day news came that she was safe.

The steamer Homer will arrive down today, and will take on board light-house supplies for Alaska. Before sailing she will be beached here to have her propeller repaired. Two light-houses are being built by the government at Unimak in Alaska, and the Homer will take supplies for a third. Captain Donaldson will be accompanied on the northern trip by his wife and children.

The river steamer Glenola has been bought from Captain C. O. Hill by the Oregon Round Lumber company. The Glenola was formerly known as the Shaver, and was owned by the White Collar Line.

The steamer Iaqua is due at the mouth of the river, and also the steamer Robert Dollar. The Iaqua will load lumber at Westport and the Dollar at Portland.

The steam schooner Aberdeen came down from Portland last night and will proceed to sea for San Francisco this morning.

BREVITIES

Judge Anderson is having troubles of his own just now in the rearrangement of his office. Papers and books were allowed to accumulate under the former regime, and the dusty piles of rubbish have to be gone through least anything of value should be thrown away in the mass.

The committee appointed by the labor council to arrange for a fitting celebration of Labor day are meeting with marked success in their efforts to obtain the public's assistance. Altogether the day promises to be observed in a manner long to be remembered by Astorians.

Phil Le Roy, whose hearing on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses from Pat Lawler, of Seaside, was continued until Monday, is still in jail, but is making strong efforts to secure the sum necessary to pay the costs of the action.

The regular meeting of the Woman's club will be held today at 2:30 P. M. in Odd Fellows' hall. The election of officers for the ensuing year and other matters of importance will come before the club. A full attendance is requested.

The boiler for the new sawmill at Thayer's landing, a mile and a-half above Rainier, is being put in place. The mill will be in operation by the middle of July.

A most successful social was given last night by the ladies of the Norwegian Methodist church. Many persons were present, and an enjoyable time was spent by all.

WINS RACE AND CIGAR.

A foot race under strict Marquis of Queensbury rules was run on Commercial street last night by Pete Mayer and Charlie Johnson, of Foard & Stokes. The course was from Burns' cigar store, round the postoffice, and back. The men made good pace until the postoffice was reached, when each hung back so as to let the other get around the corner and give himself a chance to start for home in the interval. The result was that both cut out the postoffice turn, and headed back up the street. Pete can run a press faster than he can run a race, but he made a hard fight, and managed to win by a short nose. There was a cigar bet on the result, but Pete didn't have enough breath to smoke it last night. The time of the race was not officially taken, but it is said to have been under 25 minutes.

NEW ATTRACTIONS AT THE UNIQUE THEATER

This busy little place is filled to its capacity every night. The program will be partly new. Prof. L. Fox, the bird and animal imitator, will appear today and all next week. He imitates different subjects from a fly to a steam engine. He hails from Australia, and is now on his way east to play the leading vaudeville houses. Paul La Croix, the tramp juggler, is getting his share of applause from his funny remarks and wonderful juggling.

RETAIN OLD DIRECTORS.

At a meeting of the Lewis and Clark Telephone company yesterday afternoon, O. I. Peterson, W. J. Ingalls and J. W. Reith were retained as directors. These directors drew up a set of rules for users of the telephone system, and the company adopted them later in the evening.

FLAG DAY CELEBRATION.

An effort is being made to establish June 14 of each year as Flag day, because it was on this date that the thirteen stars and stripes were adopted as the National emblem. Another important day in the history of the country was the one on which the famous family medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters was first introduced to the public, fifty years ago. Today it is recognized as our National remedy for stomach, liver and kidney complaints, because it has always been proven reliable, often effecting a cure when other remedies have failed. If your stomach is out of order and you suffer from loss of appetite, belching, heartburn, indigestion, dyspepsia, indigestion or constipation, you will find a few doses of the Bitters will set the stomach right and cure these disorders. Try it and see.

HUMANITY OUTRAGED

The U. S. dispensary says: "Opium lessens the peristaltic motion of the bowels. Its local effect (when applied to the lower bowel) is the same as its general operation. Conium PARALYZES the motor nerves; aconite reduces muscular strength; belladonna produces PARALYTIC symptoms; hyoscyamus and stramonium are same as belladonna. THEY DO NOT EXERCISE ANY OPERATIVE INFLUENCES." Every pile medicine prescribed or on the market contains some of the above poisons. For sale by CONN DRUG CO., EAGLE DRUG CO., CHAS ROGERS.

EXCEPT E-RU-SA PILE CURE. "E-RU-SA doubtless is the only pile medicine on the market which does not contain narcotic poisons or mercury."—ECONOMICAL DRUG CO., Chicago, Ill. Per C. H. McConnell, president. "We guarantee no mercury or opiates in E-RU-SA pile cure."—Woodward Clarke & Co., Portland, Ore. Worst cases cured with one box. E-RU-SA contains no mercury, no opiates. All reliable up-to-date druggists sell E-RU-SA.
